Profile:

Wesley Walker's practice focuses on construction litigation, in which he represents general contractors, subcontractors, suppliers and owners in a variety of related construction-oriented disputes. He also has experience as an employment litigator, representing clients in non-compete and trade secret litigation, breach of contract disputes, wage-and-hour actions, and employment discrimination claims. He routinely advises clients on compliance with federal and state employment laws.

Prior to joining the firm, Wesley was a management consulting executive for a global professional services firm, working with clients in the public service sector. In addition, he has previous legal experience with a large, national law firm recognized in the area of insurance defense, where he was a member of the complex tort and general casualty practice group. While at his previous firm, Wesley frequently represented a national rideshare entity along with several construction and energy clients. Additionally, Wesley evaluated ERISA and non-ERISA disputes over disability, life and health coverage for the insurance industry and self-funded plans.
